

Andrea Gartner

Director, City
Center Danbury

Andrea Gartner is a lifelong resident of the Greater Danbury Area. After graduating with a Bachelor of Science in Government from Georgetown University, Andrea worked and traveled extensively in the hotel industry before settling to raise her family. During this time, she pursued a Master's degree in history from Western CT State University and involved herself in community and fundraising activities including helping establish the Ridgefield Playhouse. Presently, she is Vice President of the Housatonic Valley Cultural Alliance and board member of the Regional YMCA of Western CT, Ridgefield Symphony Orchestra, and Danbury Dance Initiative.

Since February 2007, Andrea Gartner has been Executive Director of CityCenter Danbury and currently serves on the Danbury Main Street Partnership, the Regional Advisory Council of Naugatuck Community College, and is a founding coordinator of the Danbury Farmers' Market Community Collaborative. Andrea is a passionate advocate for creating community and cultural unity, prosperity and health.
