

Joan Almon

Executive
Director,
Alliance for Childhood

Joan Almon was formerly a Waldorf early childhood educator who became deeply concerned about the decline she witnessed in children's overall health and well-being. In 1999 she joined forces with a wide range of educators, health professionals, and others to found the Alliance for Childhood. Its campaigns highlight the problems of childhood today and solutions to the problems. For the past seven years Joan and the Alliance have focused strongly on the restoration of play to children of all ages (and to adults, too).
