RED MOLLY
Sunday, March 8

2 PM

Free tickets given out starting at 1 PM
thanks to the Friends of the Library

"With gorgeous harmonies on original work and tasteful covers, plus slide guitar and multi-instrumental versatility, Red Molly brings a breath of fresh air into the singer/songwriter world. Here's hoping we'll be hearing from these three women for a long time."

Portraits in Motion

Vincent: A Portrait by the Postman Roulin performed by Ted Zalewski

Thursday, March 5, 7 PM

This performance follows Vincent van Gogh's personal and artistic journey as seen through the eyes of his friend Roulin.

Ted Zalewski, writer and performer, is a member of the Screen Actor's Guild as well as an adjunct faculty member at Urban College in Boston.

The program is suitable for older teens and adults and is made possible thanks to the Wadsworth Russell Lewis Fund.

Panel Discussion: Take Control of Your Career

On Thursday, March 26 at 7 p.m. a panel of local specialists will discuss career transitions. The talk will include advice on breaking through career blocks, strategies for finding a job, self-care during your job search, and much more. In this workshop you will be given exercises to help you get clarity on your career direction and begin to identify the key elements of your ideal career.

The panel will be led by Mike Jaffe, founder of Jaffe Life Designs. Mr. Jaffe is a life coach, motivational speaker, and seminar leader whose programs empower professionals to redefine what's possible in their personal and professional lives.

Registration is not required.

Team of Rivals: The Political Genius of Abraham Lincoln

by Doris Kearns Goodwin

An acclaimed Pulitzer Prize-winning historian (No Ordinary Time) illuminates Lincoln's political genius in this highly original work, as the one-term congressman / prairie lawyer rises from obscurity to prevail over three gifted rivals of national reputation to become President.

This is the 2nd part of the discussion of Team of Rivals.

CRITICS' CIRCLE BOOK GROUP

Tuesday, March 17
7 PM

A Thread of Grace
by Mary Doria Russell

A group of Jewish refugees, who have escaped Germany and settled into a Northern Italian village, once again face danger when Italy surrenders to Hitler. Russell's storytelling skills and character writing, blended with a fierce sense of humor, make for a riveting World War II saga.

A.M. BOOK GROUP

Wednesday, March 25
10 AM

The Painted Kiss
by Elizabeth Hickey

A biographical novel that follows the relationship of Austrian painter Gustav Klimt and the young woman who starts as his 12-year-old drawing student and becomes his model, mistress and muse.

POETRY DISCUSSION GROUP

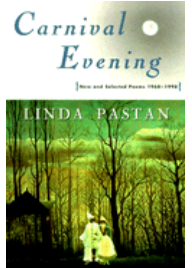

Friday, March 20
1 PM

Carnival Evening
by Linda Pastan

"There is no fuss in Pastan's neat, trustworthy, and cardinal poems, no elusive imagery or eye-crossing syntax. This substantial volume draws on nine previous collections and presents an array of powerful new poems, and it is a deep pleasure to trace the path of Pastan's poetic exploration into the nature of a life lived determinedly within the family circle."
