WORLDVIEWS

The Islamic Mystique: Fact & Fiction

The League of Women Voters and the Library present The Islamic Mystique: Fact and Fiction with Middle East expert Linda Pappas Funsch. Ms. Funsch will explore popular images of Islam and its practitioners, including its relations with other faiths and cultures, the role of women, and the rise of Islamism in the modern age.

Ms. Funsch teaches Middle Eastern culture and Islamic history at Hood College, as well as at Frederick Community College in Maryland. She lectures extensively on these topics throughout the greater Washington, D.C. area, to church and study groups, civic and other organizations.

Free & Open to the Public - Refreshments

- The exhibit can be viewed until March 27 at the Library during normal opening hours when the room is not in use for another event.

- The exhibit can be viewed at The Staircase Gallery, 5 Danbury Rd, Monday to Saturday, 9—5 PM—Call (203) 438-9338.

The Library, together with The Staircase Art Gallery in Ridgefield (5 Danbury Rd., 3rd Floor, The Tile Shop) will host an exciting exhibit of paintings from contemporary artists living in Baghdad. The exhibit opens March 2 and will run in both locations through March 27. The paintings are coming to Ridgefield thanks to the Iraqi Art gallery in Chicago. Part of the gallery's mission is "to create opportunities for Iraqi artists to generate an income by virtue of their creativity, talent and hard work." Be sure not to miss this rare opportunity to see some of the amazingly vibrant and creative work being done in Baghdad today.

See No Evil

by Robert Baer

In his explosive New York Times bestseller, top CIA operative Robert Baer paints a chilling picture of how terrorism works on the inside and provides startling evidence of how Washington politics sabotaged the CIA's efforts to root out the world's deadliest terrorists. Seymour Hersh of The New Yorker contends that "Robert Baer was considered perhaps the best on-the-ground field officer in the Middle East and one of the most talented Middle East case officers of the past twenty years."
