Lecture:

World Views: Focus on Literacy

with Hassina Sherjan

Join us for another event in our Focus on Literacy series with a lecture by Hassina Sherjan, founder of the charity Aid Afghanistan for Education and owner and Chief Executive Officer of Boumi Company. Hassina Sherjan is also the co-author of Toughing It Out in Afghanistan. She has published various op-eds in The NY Times, USA Today and The Guardian. In 2008 she participated in the evaluation of the Afghanistan Reconstruction Trust Fund. When the Taliban outlawed education for women, Ms. Sherjan operated secret schools to help women and girls have access to education.

Book Presentation:

Raising Resilient Children

with LeAnn Nickelsen, M. Ed. and The Ridgefield Prevention Council

LeAnn Nickelsen will start the evening by giving an overview of Raising Resilient Children and how it ties into other powerful pieces of parenting research. She will clearly define what a resilient child looks like and the parental characteristics that support healthy growth. Two topics will be specifically examined: negative scripts vs. positive scripts and disciplining in ways that promote resilience.

Discounted copies of the book can be purchased at Books on the Common.

Exhibit:

Paintings of the Neo-Tropics and the Southern US by Michael Rothman

Michael Rothman makes painstakingly 2-D reconstructions of both extant and extinct habitat groups for institutional settings, as well as editorial, magazine, and commercial print renderings. He has participated as a field artist on three expeditions in the undisturbed lowland rain forests of central French Guiana, and on two ethnobotanical surveys in Western Samoa. His highly detailed paintings illustrate "the utterly complex interrelationship between the flora and fauna of the natural world, as well as the overarching effect of humankind on the biome."
